

Coach, Player, Parent & Fan Conduct

1. Any game determined to be unsafe due to Coaches, Players, Parents and/or Fans behavior will be terminated immediately by the attending Site Manager. The Site Manager with input from the Officials, will determine the team at fault or if both teams are at fault. That team(s) will be terminated from tournament play for a minimum of one (1) year.
2. Parents and other Fans are expected to be respectful to referees and cheer for their teams. Any Fan deemed to be unruly will result in expulsion from the facility for that game and the remainder of the tournament. Expulsion from the facility will result in that fan's team forfeiting the game where the expulsion occurred.
3. Respectful conversation with referees by coaches is permitted and encouraged. Disrespectful outburst by coaches will not be tolerated. 1st Infraction – Warning. 2nd Infraction – Technical Foul. 3rd Infraction – Technical and expulsion from the game and facility and cannot coach or be present for their team's next game. If the coach ejected does not leave the facility in a respectful manner, the referee may call a forfeit in favor of the other team. A coach ejected twice during tournament play will result in that coach's team being removed from the tournament.
4. Any Coach, Player, Parent or Fan verbally or physically threatening anyone else in the facility will be arrested and removed from the facility and may not be in the facility for the remainder of the tournament. That Coach, Player, Parent or Fan's team will forfeit the game in progress or the next game to be played.
5. Midwest Basketball Tournaments Management reserves the right to not accept registrations from teams or organizations for events if that team or organization is deemed to be a threat to the safety of Players, Referees, Parents, Fans, Employees or Patrons of Midwest Basketball Tournaments.
