

Tournament Standards & Conduct

We value your support and commitment to helping us make all Road To Nationals events a safe & welcoming place for everyone.

Players & Coaches

- Honor the game and display sportsmanship by respecting the rules and officials, as well as my opponents, teammates, and self.
- Refrain from harassment or bullying of other players, coaches, or individuals in any manner.
- Refrain from use of profanity on the court or any other communal area.
- Refrain from physical violence at all times
- Use social media responsibly. Social media activity should never be used to incite, harass, or bully other players, coaches, officials or individuals, and should always reflect good sportsmanship.
- Refrain from possessing or using illicit drugs or alcohol, and to only use prescription medicine as directed by a physician.
- As a player, strive to make myself, my teammates and the game better.
- As a coach, to strive to win while pursuing the more important goal of teaching valuable life lessons.

Parents & Fans

- Recognize that my role is to support my athlete as well as other participants and allow the players and coaches to focus on the results on the court.
- Emphasize the benefits and importance of skill development, learning valuable life lessons, and doing one's best.
- Refrain from engaging in any kind of unsportsmanlike conduct with any player, coach, official, parent, or spectator (e.g., booing, taunting, harassment, or use of profane or insulting language & gestures)
- Teach my child to treat other players, coaches, officials, parents, and spectators with respect regardless of race, creed, color, sex or ability.
- Promote the emotional and physical well-being of the athletes over any personal desire I may have for my child to win.
- Teach my child to play by the rules and to resolve conflicts without resorting to hostility or violence.
- Refrain from possessing or using illicit drugs or alcohol

Failure to abide by the code outlined above may result in removal from the tournament and any future Road To Nationals events.
